OPENING UP IRON MINE WHILE QUARRYING BALLAST ROCK

Bodies of Four Men Killed in the Quarry, Shipped to El Paso for Interment This Week.
David Williams, who is quarrying rock for the Southwestern railroad near Tecolote, 18 miles north of Carrizozo, N. M., is shipping 13 cars of rock a week, and is also opening up a large body of iron ore three and a half miles from El Paso. In the same neighborhood, the Colorado Fuel and Iron company is opening up the new iron mine it recently acquired from Prof. Fayette A. Jones, of Albuquerque, and is shipping several cars a week to its plant in Pueblo, Colo. Mr. Williams had four men killed by a blast in the quarry last week and shipped their bodies to El Paso for interment Monday.

NO OPPOSITION TICKET IN FIELD FOR SOME TIME

Hall and Howe Decide to Wait for a While—Dean Jackson Says He Hasn't Time to Manage Campaign.

"There will be no opposition ticket placed in the field for the next 30 days, at least," said sheriff F. J. Hall and district attorney W. D. Howe this morning. "We are in the fight to stay and are working hard, but we have not yet formed any ticket."

Dan M. Jackson, who was to have managed the campaign, said: "I will lend Mr. Hall all the assistance and give him all the advice I can, in his fight, but I will not have sufficient time to manage the campaign."

Call Bell 115, Auto 1115, tell what you wish to buy, sell or rent and The Herald will do the rest.

MINER IS FOUND DEAD IN HOTEL

Registered as James McCarthy—Worked in Kelly, N. M. District.

Magdalena, N. M., Jan. 6.—A miner, registered under the name of James McCarthy, was found dead in his room at the Kelly house recently. He was employed in one of the local mines at Kelly and had been there for about six weeks. When he arrived in Kelly he had no money, but immediately went to work. At the time of his death he was working on the night shift and he was found in his room at about 11 o'clock. McCarthy was a man little past the middle age in life, and his friends claim that he holds a union miner's card, but no such card was found among his effects. Upon investigation it was found that he had about $175 in his room.

The home of H. A. Patterson, contractor and builder, was destroyed by fire recently. At the time the fire was discovered no one was at home, and the origin of the fire is not known. The total damage will probably amount to about $1000.

NEW MEXICO'S SCHOOL ENROLLMENT IS 46,005.

New Mexico Expended $631,255 for School Purposes Last Year—No Relief for Land Holders.

Santa Fe, N. M., Jan. 6.—The superintendent of public instruction announces that the annual census of persons between the ages of 5 and 20 in New Mexico gave 38,424 persons of that age; that the number of pupils enrolled in the public schools is 46,005; the number of teachers employed, 1268; and the amount expended for public school purposes last year was $631,255.

Governor Curry has received a letter from secretary of Interior R. A. Ballinger, that no relief can be extended to settlers on the lands recently ordered thrown open after having been withdrawn with the purpose of inclusion in the Pecos forest, who fall to make a small holding (farms) by March 2, unless congress passes a law to that effect.

CLOVIS TO HAVE WHOLESALE HOUSE, HAS FIRE.

Clovis, N. M., Jan. 5.—Clovis is now about to enter upon her career as a wholesale center for the eastern part of New Mexico and the west tier of counties of the Texas Panhandle.

About 20 days ago J. L. Pugh came here from Hamburg, Ark., to look over the field with a view of establishing a wholesale grocery house in this city. Upon his return home he advised his associates that the prospects were most flattering and requested that they send another member of the company.

Investigate also. Early this week W. Brown arrived and began looking over the proposition and thinks it feasible.

What came near being a disastrous fire occurred here yesterday when the tailor shop of Smith & Roberts caught from a pan of gasoline in which one of the men was washing a skirt. The timely arrival of several cool headed persons who covered the flames with rugs and blankets saved the property.

MEXICANS BATTLE IN BISBEE STREET

Miae Man Has Narrow Escape From Death—Many Bounties Paid.

Bisbee, Ariz., Jan. 6.—Brewery Gulch was the scene of a battle between several Mexicans. Stones and clubs were the only weapons used by the fighters, who held their positions until dislodged by constable McRea, who, though single handed, succeeded in arresting all the rebels at once.

J. J. Winters miraculously escaped death at the Spray mine, where he works as a shift boss. As he was stepping aside to avoid a car, which was running, his jumper was caught in a hole and his body jerked forward between the car and the timbers of the drift. When the car struck Winters it stopped immediately.

Statistics made by the board of supervisors show that $4100 was paid last year to hunters in the county for bounties, allowed by law, for the killing of wild animals. The total hides turned over to the board was 2618.
